

If you want to change your Will, simply ask your solicitor to help.

If you would like to share your decision to leave a gift in your Will with the Hospice, then we would really appreciate it. It would give us the opportunity to thank you for your kind support, however, we will completely understand if you wish to keep this decision private.

Nightingale House Hospice makes every day worth living.
You can help this continue.

A Gift for the Future

Vikki died of cancer at Nightingale House Hospice, aged 27, in 2010 with her family by her side.

"Vikki told us that she wanted to die in the Hospice and so, as a family, we all came to have a look around and realised what a calm and peaceful place it was."

A gift in your Will helps ensures Nightingale House Hospice can continue providing care for future generations

The future of the Hospice is in your hands

*“Vikki did cry the day we got the news.
But then she just stopped and said,
‘This isn’t going to do us any good.’*

She dried her eyes, started planning her wedding, the memories she wanted to leave and how she would say goodbye.”

Nightingale House Hospice takes the whole family under their wing from the first meeting and very often continues long after losing a loved one.

Every year, we share the light and dark, joy and sorrow of hundreds of patients and their loved ones. Friends, families and neighbours who are running out of time and making every day count need the care and support of our close-knit, close-by Hospice.

By leaving a gift to Nightingale House Hospice in your Will, you are making future patients’ time with us as loving and easy as it is possible to be.

Our skilled, warm and respectful care is in great demand and, as years go by, the need will increase. Palliative Care is changing rapidly and we have always been at the forefront of new developments. Your gift will help patients make the most of every day with specialist treatments and dedicated care and support.

We encourage everyone at the Hospice to have short, achievable goals. Vikki achieved her goals of organising her wedding and the Snowdon Walk. Please will you set yourself the goal of leaving us a gift in your Will?

“The day Vikki came into Nightingale House we all realised what a huge relief it was to be here.

The staff gave us time as a family, but at the first sign of Vikki ever being uncomfortable, or when we needed them, they were there for us, quiet, calm and reassuring. Vikki encouraged all the family to visit.”

We understand that you will want to provide for those people closest to you, but would ask you to consider leaving a gift in your Will to the Hospice, no matter what the amount; it will be treasured by hundreds of families in the future.

A gift, no matter the amount — £500, £5,000 £50,000 or greater — will help us to continue our work.

“Vikki wanted to do something for the Hospice and so she organised a walk up Snowdon, but she stayed at the bottom of the mountain in her chair.”

A message from Vikki’s family.

*“We never thought that we would see our beautiful daughter in a Hospice, but we were so grateful that Nightingale House Hospice were there when we needed them.
Please consider leaving a gift in your Will so they can help other families.”*
